The Golden Mill was created by a group of locals who purchased the historic Golden Mill which was originally used as a flour mill. They transformed the historical building into a unique dining experience where there is something for everyone. The food hall features 5 high-quality food vendors offering sushi, fried chicken, tacos, BBQ, and a New Zealand-style creamery. They also provide a wide variety of beverage choices. In the main tap room, they offer a selection of 46 taps for many unique beers, wines, house-made cocktails, and non-alcoholic drinks, including non-alcoholic beer and kombucha. Their rooftop beer wall features an additional 16 taps for a slightly smaller selection of beers, wines, cocktails, and even sake. In addition to offering so many food and beverage selections, the Golden Mill is located right next to Clear Creek so diners can enjoy the beautiful Colorado mountain and river views.
